“ Bo, Brian and I are so sorry to hear this. I am in shock. Every time I think about Becky, I hear her saying that 'Michaela still has her ladybug blanket.' We're sorry we did not find out in time to be there today. I know there is nothing we can say or do right now to make things much better, but just know that we're thinking about you and praying for you and the babies.

“ I can't believe you are actually gone. I have been thinking about you A lot here lately. When my dad called to tell me the bad news, I fell to the floor after ending the call with him. I fell to the floor crying. I still can't believe you are gone. All throughout the day, it seemed so unreal at times that I wouldn't even think about it, but then I would start thinking about it and realize you are actually gone. I haven't seen you in over a year. Now it's too late. Its too late for anything. Its too late to hear your laugh, your voice, or to even see you. I can't even convince myself this is real. I just love you so much Aunt Becky. I love you so much and miss you so much I wish I could bring you back. ❤️ Rest in peace Aunt Becky

Becky came to my Fitness Center about 11 or 12 years ago to get ready for her wedding. She was so happy to be getting married. I can remember that laugh to this day. Ironically, I went to work at Lifetouch yrs later after I closed the fitness center. Becky was already gone from Lifetouch when I started there in August 2008. Her Lifetouch family still talks about her to this day and how she was an awesome leader and actually made it a better place to work for everyone. This is such sad news and I know she will be greatly missed.
