“ As a young child you always had kind and soft words for me. Our days full of sitcoms on the screened in porch & our nights full of warm cinnamon milk or teaching me to brush my teeth with my finger because I left my toothbrush at paw paw's. You were always so warm and gentle in your words. Moving away has been hard for a long time but our memories will forever remain in my heart. I love you Uncle Harvey.

“ I will miss you Papa. You weren't a man of many words, but you were most certainly always loving, kind and generous. Your actions spoke for you...they told me I was loved.

“ There are so many memories, there's no way to recall them all. Some good, some not so good. Even when we disagreed, we still loved one another. The day I married Larry, I didn't just get a father-in-law, I got a Dad. I knew if and when I needed him, he was always there for me. I remember the day HE decided I needed my drivers license, and he took me that very day. I think he was happier than I was, that day. Then there was the day he came to visit us at the beach. He burned the top of his feet so bad, I thought he was going to have to come back to Chattanooga barefoot. I could never have asked for a better Papaw for my boys. He loved them unconditionally and he showed it. The tears I shed, are for me. I know he is healthy now, and so happy to be at home with family. I can only imagine the smile on his face when he saw Larry, Denny, Keith and all the other family members. He wouldn't come back here if he could. I will miss him, but I know that one day I will see him again. Until that day I will cherish the memories he gave me and the love he showed me.

“ 10-24-15 Memories

This Morning upon arriving at home from work. I received this bad news that my dad had just passed away, earlier this morning. At 8:05 am

I'am filled with grief, The pain of loss, that I have lost someone so very dear and, special to me, My dad who I love and respected all my life. Who was every thing a dad should be , So many memories from childhood up. I have of my dad we were a close and loving family. He instilled in me a kind and loving heart. his wisdom and wit, and common sense I use each day. Dad your faith, and my faith in Jesus Christ tells me the distance between you and me dad are only temporary. God has you in his keeping.. I have you in my heart I'am proud to say you are my dad the greatest man I every known. I will never say good bye to you my father, because I know this is not the end for us to see each other. You will only be going to a place where there is no pain or suffering, For you will be with God.

*Your Loving Son
Steve Graham. ,*

Dad, I miss you. I always knew you loved your family and you always, always stood your ground and went to battle for us. A quite man of few words. So strong and in control even in the mist of your pain.you spoke your mind. Love you forever
