“ We are very grateful to receive the phone call this morning to let us know of Dick's passing ... but very unhappy to know this news. We were just talking the other day to some people walking by out front of our house asking about the neighbors who had the 2 little dogs and the occasional snakes. We have good memories of you, Ann, and Dick and your daughters and your grandchildren. Alan and I are extremely delighted to know that you and Dick were going to church ... so you know that you will see him once again when it's your time to move into your mansion Jesus has prepared for you. What do you suppose Dick is doing right now? Jumping up and down on his new legs? Experiencing the greatest love that surpasses human knowledge? Gathering around his loved ones that went before him? Seeing colors that can't be described in human words, hearing music that our ears have never experienced? We know grief and the time it takes to go through it and come out the other side ... you are never the same. Just know that we are with you in prayer and in spirit and be strong in Jesus's promise that he will never leave you nor forsake you.
Love to you all ... Alan & Melanie Campbell
