“ Steve was a very precious man and always showed kindness to us every time we were around him. With his quiet ways, he would always speak. He'll never be forgotten and we look forward to the day to be with him in Heaven. Our love and prayers are with his family in the upcoming days ahead.

“ Steve was a nice man and always friendly when I'd pass his house if he was outside; same with his wife Sharon. My thoughts and prayers are with this family during this time and I'm grateful I had the chance to know them. I'm glad his pain and suffering is over and he is now walking those streets of gold in good health again. Godspeed my neighbor and friend.

“ Steve visited our church at the Ringgold Church of God occasionally with his loving wife. He had many praying for his strength and health as he fought the cancer. Some knew his family members, and others were introduced at the worship services. He has a precious family, and our prayers will continue for their comfort during this time of bereavement.
