“ I spent the most time around Lamar in the late eighties and nineties, when he lived off 41 and Foster lane.

I'm glad I did. He was a great guy and a good friend. To me on the outside he was a tough guy with a quick wit and he was for sure but he was also a really nice guy that cared about his friends and his family. I wish I'd visited him more after he moved. But with FB we kept up over the years.

Lamar was a good guy and I'm glad I knew here on Earth. Rest In Peace Lamar and enjoy your new Heavenly home.

“ My Uncle. 💔😭

I will ALWAYS remember & love you. Every single time I hear Bob Seger sing Against The Wind, I think of you and that song being your absolute favorite during our fun Karaoke Sessions. Man, You would get down with it and sing your entire heart out and we loved it! So, It will forever remain....The song that immediately makes me think of YOU. You encouraged me to make it big and Sing for others. It was always “Here Nell, Sing this one for me!” You were one hell of a Man, Unc, And a great Uncle! I know you're reunited with Paw Paw Jim & Ofcourse Justin, Redo and all the others who have gone before us. Give my Daddy a big huge squeeze for me, And I will see y'all when I get there. Put the Hammer down on that Rig up in Heaven one time and after you do, Please Rest Easy. I love you forever, Unc. 🙌 Here is your Signature Peace Sign! I'll see you soon. Heaven must be so Beautiful. ❤️
