“ Randy and I were neighbors and friends. We lived on Elm Street in Rossville 1959,1960. I was 10 and Randy was 8. We enjoyed playing with each other. We moved away to Alabama and we lost contact. About 8 years later we moved back to Rossville and while walking on the sidewalk one day I met Randy and he looked so much yet like the friend that I had moved away from. He didn't remember me until I reminded him of who I was. That was 1968. I have not seen him since until today when I went to his viewing. I will always have a fond memory of him even after all these years. May God bless and comfort the loved ones he leaves behind.
