STEVE THOMPSON - March 29, 2016 at 11:04 AM

“ We didn't know that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us many memories,
Your love is still with Us.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again. . .

“ I remember the day Uncle Rick taught me how to use an open face reel. I had the trusty Zebco 33, and he MADE me use his open face ,while we fished on the creek. I always loved listening to him and my dad's stories as we floated down in his red canoe. Rick was a good man and will be truly missed. I'm sure he is telling stories with my dad now. Brothers reunited, but both taken too soon. Rest in peace cavy.

I always thought Ricky looked and laughed like Robin Williams. He was a unique character, a good son, dad, uncle, and brother-in-law. He took care of Granny when I know it really was hard. Will miss you. Vicki Thompson

*I am Louis' daughter Janine, and lost touch many years ago. So sad to find this out about Rick. He was such a sweet guy, amazing dad, and great son to mamma Irene. Hugs and prayers to all friends and family who loved him as much as my son Jerrod and I did.
