“ I love you Rickey. I miss you more than anyone will ever know. You are and have always been my hero in life. I look up to you in all ways possible. My heart is broken into a million pieces. I miss the text that I got from you daily. The talks we had and the kidding around about doctor appointments and much more. You are an amazing big brother, I am glad you are mine. I know heaven has gained an very special angel and you are missed down here on earth. I love & miss you so much. from your sister.

“ Rickey was a Wonderful Person!! No words can describe the pain that his Mohawk Family is feeling right now at the sudden news of losing a dear friend and co-worker. His love for his wife, Karen , his Daughter Summer and his granddaughter, Maci was unconditional and sincere. Of all the stories he would share with us at work, we honestly felt like we knew each and every one of you. Even Sofie, the dog. Lol. His family was everything to him, and Fishing and Hunting too! Lol. (so gonna miss those big fish and buck stories) He had a great personality and loved a good laugh!! He was a big part of the Kuster Family for years, as far back as I can remember, and I have been here 12 years as of today. He has a lot of friends here, but we are more than that once you walk through the doors here at Mohawk and spend 8-12 hours together, we are all family. Karen, you were a bright smile added to his face once you entered his life and we all knew it. He sure felt blessed to have gotten the pleasure of being with you. I wish you fond memories that no one or nothing can erase, and I know your soul mate will forever look down as to protect you daily. Just know that even though some of us did not have the pleasure of meeting you and getting to know you Mrs. Karen Clark, that we are all here for you and don't hesitate to ask. I am sure we could all set down with you and share at least one funny story or three. Lol. Rickey, you will be missed greatly! But we still have you in our hearts!!! RIP, Misty Aguilar, Chris Collins and The Kuster Family

I had the pleasure and good fortune to have met Rickey within the last couple of years at Mohawk. No matter if you knew him as a close friend or just a little he had the ability to make you feel better. He was always smiling and had a humble and gentle spirit but was great at his job at the same time. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ We were devastated when we got the news this morning that Rickey went to be with the Lord, but happy that he was a Christian and is in Heaven. We have cried, laughed and just remembered special things about him all day. We are so sorry Karen, Summer, Maci and to all of his family and friends. He will be missed by so many for sure. Rickey always told us fishing stories about him and Karen and of course so many cute stories about his grandbabies. One day he said he was on the phone with little Maci and while they were talking she was playing and dropped the phone.... Maci looked down at the phone on the floor and said "Papaw you ok?" She thought she had dropped her Papaw :) Another was his other little granddaughter who had told him that white milk came from white cows, chocolate milk comes from brown and strawberry milk comes from pink cows :) He truly loved his family and loved telling stories about them. We will never forget all the hard work he did for us to make our jobs easier and just knowing we had a friend in him. RIP Rickey Clark

“ I have had the pleasure of working with Rickey for the past couple of years. Rickey was more than a co-worker, he was a great friend. Rickey had a love for his family that was unfounded and pure, especially for his granddaughter, Maci. We loved to hear stories that he would tell us about her and his other grandchildren and stories of his daughter, Summer. Nothing seemed to light up his day like the phone calls that he would get from little Maci. I can just hear him now, "Hey Maci, pretty girl, what are you doing?" He will be missed for sure. May Heaven be filled with monster bucks, Diet Pepsi and Reese's Cups! Rest in Peace dear friend!
