“ What a sad time for all of your family. I would like to express my condolence on the death of your dear one. Words of comfort from friends are surely needed along with the ones from " the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials " ((2Cor 1:3,4). How we look forward to the time promised at Rev.21:4 when there will be no more sickness , tears , sorrow and death. These words will help you cope with the sad time ahead. My sincere sympathy to you all.

“ So sorry for ur loss. Aunt Rita was one of the best women I've ever known. She was soft spoken, always had a kind word and a smile, and could cook and garden and can like no other. She will be dearly missed.
