“ Uncle Curtis and Aunt Juanita were so good to me as a child. I wasn't blood but it didn't matter they loved me just the same. Our hearts are hurting now but know one day we will be together again. Until we meet again! Love you, Krista (Baby) Partin

“ Love the man and will miss him greatly. But won't that be a hallelujah meeting when he steps on the other side with Juanita, Rip, Red, Randy, and Poo and so many other family members will be waiting for him with open arms. But our Savior, Jesus Christ, will be there greeting him with the words, Well done, good and faithful servant.

“ There is simply not enough words to say how much I love and respect Pop. He and Grannie welcomed me and my boys into their home and were without a doubt the best neighbors anyone could ever have. He was my adoptive Pop, I know he is in heaven with the many loved ones that have gone before him. I am sure they are having a great reunion. R.I.P. Pop, until we meet again. John 16:33, Romans 8:28.

*Love in Christ,
