“ Uncle Bob was always there for me. In hard times he always made me see that what I thought was "the end of the world" was only a rock in the road. His uke was his friend and he never forgot the words to a song- if he did he'd just make up what sounded good and it always did. I can't remember life without him. Love Jer

“ Mike, Brenda and I offer our most sincere condolences in the lost of your Dad. I am sorry that I never had the opportunity to meet Mr Luzier. However, I felt like I knew him anyway, after being friends with you for so many years and hearing you talk about the "Pro". I heard recently that you never really grow up until you loose both of your parents. Sad to say, but I guess this is indeed, a part of growing up.

“ Dear Mike, Cheryl, and Brian;

A bright and shining star is shining elsewhere now. We are so sad to know your father is gone from this earthly existence and that you will have to endure missing him. My prayers are that the peace of God be with you.

Love,

Aunt Bertie and Uncle Dick

“ What wonderful memories I have of Uncle Bob singing and harmonizing with my Aunt Bum at the piano at Don Goff's house. We would call out a song.....Aunt Bum would get t going on the piano (change the key at the drop of a hat...if needed)...turn to Uncle Bob and nod to him to get the harmony going....then we would all join in.

I loved his southern accent and funny stories but especially his kindness.

Happy times are what I remember and although distance kept us from being together more we were so comfortable together that things just picked up where they left off.

I know there is a lot of music in heaven now....I look forward to joining in again one day. Enjoy your next journey Uncle Bob. No pain, no worries just joy! I love you!
