Robert Lamar Johnson, Jr.

September 17, 1966 – February 16, 2025

Robert Lamar Johnson, Jr., 58, of Rossville, Georgia, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, February 16, 2025. He was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, to the late Robert and Jane Johnson. Robert had lived in the Chattanooga and Northwest Georgia area his entire life, was of the Baptist faith, and worked at Maaco for many years. Robert enjoyed his work painting cars and going fishing. He was a quiet man who immensely loved his family and always enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren. Robert was a good man with a big heart; his family's love for him was deep and unwavering, and he will be missed.

Robert is preceded in death by his parents, Robert Lamar and Willie Jane Johnson; sisters, Laura Redmon and Sharon Johnson; and fiancé, Angela Jones.

Those left to cherish his memory include his children, Stacy (Ronnie) Clayton of Rock Spring, Georgia, and Puggy (Tabatha) Johnson of Rossville, Georgia; sisters, Cora Lea Lujan-Daldine of Manchester, Tennessee, Rose "Mouse" Redmon of Rossville, Georgia, and Kimberly Hawkins of Collegedale, Tennessee; former wife, Martha Johnson; six grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

The family has arranged a time to remember and honor Robert. “ Robbie will be sorely missed and I couldn't have asked for a better brother-in-law. I've worked underneath many cars and stood on many banks fishing alongside Robbie and I know we're all going to miss that infectious laugh of his. Rest easy brother.
