“ Robert and I have been friends for over 30 years I used to work for him at Ledford EZ Finance. Robert has always been like a mentor to me and has always been good to my kids. One thing I can say is always like classy cars. This present one of the best guys I've ever known in my whole life. He loved everybody. And I honored him being in Vietnam. He always like to get that military discount whenever you want to the restaurants but then everybody that I guess. It always make me laugh and he always had a joke. Rest in peace buddy I'm glad you're not suffering anymore but I hate your not here condolences to your family and to your kids I know you loved them alot. You can fish all you want now. Glad I got to tell you I love ya. And thanks for mentoring my boy. He misses you.

“ I've spoken with Robert on Facebook a few times and kept up with him thru family members but I have not seen him in years. I was mostly around Robert when I was 9, 10 years old and most people who know me will vouch I was a MAJOR BRAT back in those days! And of course back then I didn't realize this but Robert and Lisa welcomed me in their home every weekend to go swimming with Sonya and her friends. If Sonya wasn't there that weekend I was still welcome. I took that for granted but what a very nice gesture from a very nice man. Sonya and Bruce, I'm sad for u both 😭
