“ R.L. Norman was my uncle, my mother's younger brother. I remember him as a decent man, honorable and kind. My sister Lynda and I would spend part of the summertime at bus farm when we were young. I remember picking watermelons and watching R.L. on his tractor. May he Rest In Peace.

Uncle RL was such a good person, always kind to us kids, he was married 2 great ladies, after grandpa passed, he reminded of him every time I saw him. He will be missed but I bet he's up in heaven rejoicing with the ones that have gone on before us. May he rest in peace

R.L. was my great-uncle. I got to spend some time with him on a visit to my Aunt Lynda's house about ten years ago. We went to his house and I talked to him for a long time about his time in the war. I wish I could have spent more time with him over the years. RIP Great-Uncle RL!
