“ I knew Robert back in High School (CVHS) and shortly thereafter we worked together on the same print machine at Dan River in Chickamauga. As Larry Wyatt said, "Robert looked like a bad dude", however from my experience he was as nice of a guy as anyone could ask for. Rest in peace friend!!

“ I will never forget sitting in Legends bar in Maggie Valley NC. The bar was slammed. We got the last table. We were at a 6 top table and there were only 2 of us I told the waitress the next 4 people could sit with us. And Robert, Jackson and a lady just happened to be those people. Robert had just lost his wife and we had just lost our son. Common ground I wouldn't wish on any one but I am so grateful And blessed to have share a memories of our son and of His sweet wife over a beer. Every motorcycle trip to NC he mad, we at least had a conversation and share a meal. RIP sweet friend and Until we meet again. Love and sweet hugs Roger and April Huffman.

“ Robert looked like a bad dude. But was a gentle giant of a person. Always easy to talk to. He and Ronda were a match made in Heaven. They are again back together. Will miss you Robo.

“ I met Robert in 2009 when searching for someone to repair my motorcycle, or "motorsickle" as he always called them. Became friends instantly and I never let anyone else touch my bikes other than him. He was the kind of guy that always answered his phone with positive attitude and willing to help. I'll miss him not only about motorcycles but as a friend that we hade become. RIP my friend, also tell Rhonda hello from me.
