“ Frank was a good friend and a gentleman. We loved learning to know him and his family when attending family reunions in Rossville, Georgia. So sorry we didn't learn of his passing until 2 weeks afterward. Our sympathy to his wife Tommie and the rest of the family. God Bless and comfort is our prayer.

“ We will always remember the good times we had in Chattanooga at the family reunions over the past few years when the whole family got together for meals and games. Frank was always such a fine Southern gentleman, treating everyone with respect. Frank will be sorely missed in our hearts.
