“ I will never forget Bobby. I remember when my sister and I were little, and Bobby, Dwight and Aunt Marie would come to visit us. Bobby and Dwight would always hide and Aunt Marie would pretend they didn't come with her. We would be so upset, but we wouldn't believe her long because they would peep around the corner of the car. They were always so much fun when we were little. As we got older, Bobby and I got closer. I will never forget having a research paper in college on Led Zeppelin. He went all over Chattanooga with me one night looking for the song, "Train Keeps a Rollin" by the Yardbirds that featured everyone at once: Jeff Beck, Jimmy Page, and Eric Clapton. We could not purchase it, of course, but the owner let us record it on cassette for my presentation. He had the best personality and always kept me laughing. My sister has an even better story, but it is not mine to tell here. Hopefully she will post. My prayers are with Trish and Madison, and if you guys need anything please let me know.
