“ I choose to not let her go. I still here her voice saying hi baby. And next I hear her saying my name in disbelief of what ever I said that got her attention. She was a great listener and gave great advice. But she really listened to what you were saying. She'll always have a diamond in her crown for being our angel on Earth and being the greatest mother and wife to my brother, Sister & Sister n law. The songs we sang and the road trips, the laughs, the stories! And her memory ! of dates, she could pull up the year in a heartbeat! out of the blue, She was a human calendar. I just can't let her go. So thankful for those years. I look forward to hearing her sing " Hello Stranger" with me again. There is no other like her.❤️

My heart aches for all of you. I know these are hard times but remember you will see her again on day. No more pain. Walking on those streets of gold. What a wonderful time she must be having. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all.

“Robin, you are 4ever in my heart my dear friend. Buddy my thoughts and prayers are with you and all the family at this difficult time. Last time I seen Robin, her and Buddy had been to Cherokee, for a few days and was on their way home, Buddy of course, tried "stealing" my grocery cart, and my response was Mr. Buddy how's Robin ?? , He paused , looked away a second, & thru his teared up voice said " her cancers back" shes outside if you want to say hi., without saying another word I went to their truck, hugged, talked, laughed and cried with her.. she said she was tired and ready to go home..I know everyone misses her, including myself, yet it was time for Robin to rest, and go home...
