“ Rodney, my precious brother, you are and have always been the sweetest brother. You protected me as I was growing up and always was my friend. I will miss you so much and I will always think of you everyday. I don't know how life will be without you because a big part of my heart went with you. I love you so much and I can see your sweet smile as you met Jesus. I'll see you again someday my brother. Love you forever, Arlene ”
