“ I am so grateful to have ran into Roger at the Palms in November, he had just found out about his illness and his stoic disposition was nothing less than heroic! He spoke so highly of his grandchildren, it was refreshing to see such a proud grandpa!
My thoughts and prayers go out to Inez, Ed ,Tonya , Rogers children and grandchildren. Roger is blessed to be going to see his wonderful father in heaven. May you all find comfort and peace at this difficult time.

“ I am sorry for the loss of Roger. It was a pleasure growing up playing ball as an opponent. Roger and I always traded barbs with each other during games but we always parted as friends after the game. He will be missed, my prayers are with the family.

“ To Inez and Tonya, this is Anna Ownby, I truly am sorry for your loss, I cannot imagine, I will remember you in my thoughts & prayers. Dennis & I ran into Roger a few years ago at the Advance Auto in Fort O, I told him about the time we were at Pine Forest Pool in Chickamauga & he picked me up out of my lounge chair & threw me in the pool, he may have been 16 years old then , but still a big boy, I think I told him not to do that or I was going to spank him , well if you knew Roger you did not dare him or threaten him, (lol) he did it anyway & if you guessed already I didn't spank him, I was more mad I got my hair wet, we laughed about it, he just smiled & said I should not have done that, it's ok Roger you made me smile when I tell my kids about that, they laugh too. God Bless you & your family. See you in heaven Roger!

“ I'm truly at a loss as what to say about this gentle giant. Roger was always cracking jokes and tried hard to hide that he was a sweet, thoughtful, teddybear of a man. One of my fondest memories was one of our first real date. He spent over a week cleaning his house, days planning the date, all evening cooking, and when we sat down to dinner he reached over, took my plate, and then cut up my steak. When I asked him why he was doing that he simply said "because you deserve to be taken care of." He impressed me and his friends with his kindness. To his family, especially Inez, Lindsey, and Amber, I am so, so sorry for your loss and pray you'll find comfort and peace in God's abundant love.

“ I met "Tiny" at The Palms and was very fond of him. My son (a bartender there), the DJ there and Tiny all looked similar so I became "Mom" to all of them. Several people thought they were all related, and we enjoyed that humor! There are several photos of all of us and I will cherish those. He was crazy about the grandchildren and that seemed to be his focus. I truly admired him and will miss not seeing and chatting with him. My life has been enriched by having known him.

“ 50 is certainly too short for this great guy. Enjoyed playing football with Roger. While big in stature, gentle at heart. Heaven just received a great offensive tackle and a good man.
