“ Jason. I don't know exactly where to start...so many memories.working together,clubbing together,many road trips, to going and being your spy to see if your blinndate is cute or not. always tellini me, don't give up, I push you because I know you can do it. we have always been able to come to each other over everything. we would get mad , but always worked it out. 15 years weve been in each others lives. I never thought I would be sitting here without you. but I know your up there watching over us, and I know you hear me when I talk to you. and one sweet glorious day we will see each other again, you will always be in my heart and our memories will last forever. gone but never will be forgotten....I love you always and forever...

FAMILY FOREVER.
