

Ronnie Brown

June 1, 1955 - March 5, 2025

Ronnie Brown, age 69, resident of Chattanooga, Tennessee, passed away on Wednesday, March 5, 2025 at Hospice of Chattanooga.

Ronnie, son of Grace Irene Partin Brown and the late Donald Lyle Brown, was born June 1, 1955 in Chattanooga. He was a retired truck mechanic, where he helped many for over 15 years. Ronnie enjoyed watching college football; listening to Blue/Grass gospel music; and watching classic western movies. However, his greatest passion was being a caretaker for his mother for the past 18 years. The family remembers him as a man who gave service to others – always willing to help anyone.

Besides his father, he was preceded in death by a sister, Diane Wallace.

Ronnie is survived by his mother, Grace “Sissy” Brown; one sister, Brenda Gail Brown; two brothers, Donnie (Marilyn) Brown and Randall Alan (Sharon) Brown; several nieces; nephews; other relatives and friends.

Graveside services will be held at Catoosa Memorial Gardens, Ringgold, Georgia on Monday, March 10, 2025 at 2 p.m.

Arrangements by Wilson Funeral Home Wallis-Stewart Chapel, 443 Boynton Drive, Ringgold, Georgia 30736.

“ I'm only human
I'm just a man
Help me to believe in what I can be and all that I am
Show me the stairway
That I have to climb
Lord for my sake teach me to take one day at a time
One day at a time, sweet Jesus
That's all I'm asking of you
Give me the strength to do everyday
What I have to do
Yesterday's gone, sweet Jesus
And tomorrow may never be mine
So for my sake, teach me to take one day at a time
Do you remember when you walked among men?
Well Jesus you know if you're looking below
It's worse now than then
Pushing and shoving crowding my mind
So for my sake, teach me to take one day at a time
One day at a time, sweet Jesus (sweet Jesus)
That's all I'm asking of you
Give me the strength to do everyday
What I have to do
Yesterday's gone, sweet Jesus (sweet Jesus)
And tomorrow may never be mine
So, for my sake, teach me to take one day at a time
Yes, for just my sake, teach me to take one day at a time
