

Bro. Ronnie Goins

October 18, 1949 - October 20, 2024

Ronnie Goins

October 18, 1949 – October 20, 2024

Ronnie Goins, 75, of Chickamauga, Georgia, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 20, 2024.

When you look up the meaning of Ronnie, it comes as no surprise that it means "ruler" or "true image." To those who knew him, he was exactly that: the perfect picture of what a leader should be. In the midst of life's unknowns and changes, he remained a constant. Papaw was always Papaw—a true apostle of Jesus, so filled with the Spirit that it overflowed into every moment. A man who never met a stranger and, despite being hard of hearing, was a better listener than most.

He was love personified. Whether you knew him as Ronnie, Brogue, or Papaw, his fullness of joy radiated through every conversation, sermon, and hug. To be loved by him was to experience glimpses of how much Jesus loves us. The most beautiful expression of his heart was in the way he loved his family. His love for his wife was both gentle and bold, filling every corner of their home. The way he loved her shaped all of us, teaching that while love may not always be easy, it is always worth it.

His life was the greatest example of what it means to be truly surrendered to Jesus. If his hands weren't covered in grease from working on cars, they were turning the pages of his Bible. Not only did he know the Word of God, but he lived it every day. Though he may no longer be with us in person, pieces of him remain in us all—his spiritual wisdom, his knack for fixing anything, and his constant words of encouragement. And for that, we are forever blessed.

Those left to cherish his memory include his loving wife, Karen Goins; children Ronnie Jr. (Debbie) Goins, Tiffany (Cody) Goins, TT (Mistie) Goins, Tonya (Sean) Henderson, Christopher (Alyssa) Goins, Crystal (Sean) Thomas, and Tera Fuller.

The family has arranged for a time to remember and honor Ronnie. Friends and family are invited to join us on Wednesday, October 23, 2024, from 4 pm to 8 pm and Thursday, October 24, 2024 from 11 am – 1 pm. The funeral service, a time to celebrate Ronnie's life, will be held on Thursday, October 24, 2024, at 1 pm, with Pastor Dennis Goins officiating. Following the service, we will proceed to Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park, 724 Hogan Road, Rossville, TN 30741, for the burial. The family appreciates your prayers and support during this difficult time.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that memorial donations be made toward funeral expenses at Wilson Funeral Home.

An Online guest book can be found at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, is handling the funeral arrangements.

“ Brother Ronnie was loved by many. We respectively extend our condolences to Karen and the family as they grieve his loss and learn to navigate life without him. May God give them peace in the knowledge that Brother Ronnie is where he longed to be. Special hugs to our grandchildren Kooper and Kaylee. Ronnie was a loving Pappaw and a stable compass in their lives. Our hearts are saddened for them. Brother Ronnie was the same anytime you encountered him. We always walked away from the conversation a little more full of joy for having having had the "meet up" with him. That was Brother Ronnie. Dennis and Debbie Keith

*“ I've know Ronnie (Brogue) for over 50 years now. I first met him when I married his cousin Edward Carter. To know him was to loved him. His smiling face his big bear hugs when he hadn't seen you in a while. I'll never forget that wonderful laugh. He was truly LOVED BY EVERYONE THAT KNEW HIM. A true man of God. I will miss you, but one thing for sure I will see you on the other side of HEAVEN. Rest in Pease my brother in Christ and my cousin here on earth. I'll keep Karen and the kids in my prayers always. Love always your sister in Christ

“ Uncle Brogue for years was just another adult telling me what I should and should not do. Then as I grew older he was an uncle with advise from his heart then when he got saved and gave his heart to the Lord he was my uncle and friend. I loved sharing Gods love with him and hearing him tell of his love for the Lord. I travel for work and so many times I would call him and talk while driving some of the best conversations about the Lord. I am so glad I was able to see what all God did in his life and hear his love for the Lord. So when I think of him I will always have those special conversations and can say he was my uncle, my friend but more than that my brother in Christ.

Love and miss you Uncle Brogue.

I met brother Ronnie many years ago through Brother JD Wigley. He always wore such a sincere smile and you knew it wasn't fake. He always had a kind word for everyone. A very god fearing man who loved everybody. I remember he preached my daddy James Garretts funeral. Now he's in Glory with my daddy and brother Wrigley having a good old time. I'm going to miss him. He was a good man.
