“ Toby,
You meant so much to this family. I hope you know how much you were loved.
I remember when you, Jamie and uncle Gordon would sit around watch the game together and how loud it would get sometimes. You are in good hands now. You have two brave men up there with you that will guide you now. We all will miss you and remember we will love you forever.
Love,
Aunt Pat

“ What a wonderful sweet guy! Toby was a friend to everyone, always smiling through the roughest of times, always loving his children and his family with all he had. I remember his welcoming hugs, his love of good food, and his willingness to do anything he could to help people without question. He was a rock, an inspiration, and a soft shoulder.
Whenever I was around him I was uplifted and I knew I had been with a friend. I will always think about you Toby and I will forever be grateful I met you on our journey here on earth. Rest in peace, and may Heaven embrace you as you embraced all of us.

Love, Shirley Tucker

“ I'll never forget the look of both terror and thankfulness Ronnie had after we went under that barb wire fence and tore through those people's flower bed on the way to church one Wednesday night!! Mom screaming next to me to Stop! Stop! LOL! I looked up in the rear view mirror to Ronnie in the middle of the back seat clutching his gym clothes and coming up from a tuck and roll position, eyes wide as quarters!!! Lord, have mercy!! Needless to say, Mom got us to church and Ronnie never road with me again! LOL! Rest in peace my brother. Smile down on the rest of just to let us know you're okay...

He lived with my best friend Rhonda Tate Clark me and Ronnie was talking one night about the way he had been treated in marriage and how Rhonda had been treated he said Pat there's one thing for sure now she will never have to worry about that anymore and I told him that he would never have to ever have to worry about being mistreated I could see the love in both of their eyes that they had for each other .. Ronnie Gresham you are surely going to be missed my friend .. rest in peace ...

“ In total disbelief and shock. I cannot wrap my mind around it. Our many conversations about how this day was suppose to go down, in our old age, what we would want, what we would have accomplished in life, all suddenly here. NOW. TOO SOON! What we see by faith, you now see by sight! You are now home. Give my mom a hug and kiss for me!! Till we meet again my brother-

I only meet Ronnie one time and he was a very polite respectful man. Roy and Phyllis, Ronnies Mom, Grandmother Grasham and the remaining family my heart goes out to you all. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. God doesn't make mistakes and evidently Ronnie's work was completed on earth, and is now in Heaven watching over you all.
