“ The best mother, grandmother and very protective babysitter for so many children in this area. She pulled my son's first teeth and saved them for me. Spanked him with a fly swat when needed and hugged him when he didn't feel good. I never worried while being at work if he was being cared for. There are not many daycares that you can trust these days. My heart goes out to family. May God hug your hearts and hold you up today and in weeks to come.

“ What a beautiful person inside and out.. Roxie was my security blanket over 40 years ago and for many of the first years of my life, as she was for many of us that stayed at her house. Her impact of kindness has always been a basis for how I live my life, what an impact and true inspiration to many people that have been blessed to be touched by such an angel. My family was truly blessed by having her in our lives and I have enjoyed stopping by to see her and the family for over 40 years. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the family and her many friends. This is truly a life that deserves to be celebrated.. Love you Roxie....Michael Castleberry

“ So sorry to hear about Roxie. I have fond memories of her and the rest of the family being together. She had such a sweet smile. We will all be together again one day. I know you will miss her. I still miss mama and it has been two years. I pray that God will comfort you during this very difficult time. Our Love, Joe & Wanda

“ Miss you Roxie. You are greatly loved by many, especially me. I sure wish I could have one more warm, toasted peanut butter sandwich. Or to go back to Madisonville for your mom's homemade biscuits. So many memories that I will always cherish.

To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. There is no sickness in heaven. Oh, the view she has now!! Praise the Lord!
