“ We are so sorry to hear about Roy. Bless his heart, he sure was a fighter. We were going to come to visitations but our road was real nasty after the ice and snow.

“ Roy was a great friend. I was wasn't any good at insurance sales and Roy was always patient with me and encouraging me all the time. He would work with me at least one day every week and made enough sales for me to stay in the business.
I always remember going to the Waffle house in LaFayette and having coffee with Roy and the sales the team and talking about everything.
Thank you Roy, for all the great memories.
