“ We have so many wonderful memories of Rubin, and most of them involve music. Hearing him sing was always a treat, especially when he would sing Long Tall Texan. He will be missed greatly by all who knew him, most definitely including the Ott family. Praying for Trish and all of his precious family in the days to come. We love you all.

“Rubin was a very close friend to my family for many years. He wasn't only talented with his hobbies but a very kind hearted, loving, and caring man who I'm very blessed to have known. Him and his wife and daughter Cindy was more like family to me and I'll always remember his smile, humble spirit and delicious fried pies.
