“ All I can say is "Steve was my buddy". I didn't meet Steve and Joyce until 2010 but the warm feelings for both of them was immediate. I will miss him. He also loved my "Sassy". Sassy is my beagle.

“ Steve and Joyce have the greatest hearts. My fondest memories are them teaching our children to swim, that great laugh at my wedding about the candle and that great visit to Baltimore. Joyce we always had a special bond my prayers are with you.

“ My favorite memory of Steve isn't of any particular time, place or occasion, it is of the feeling of total acceptance and love that I felt every time we met or talked, and that will stay with me forever. Steve was a good man, loving and caring, loved to laugh and joke around, could always make you smile, no matter how bad you felt before. He will be dearly missed, and not just by me, Alanna, Connie, Jessica and Frank also will miss him. They also enjoyed every moment they were able to spend with him. They send their love and prayers as well since they couldn't leave Germany on such short notice and be here.
