

Ruth Day Compton Adams

September 28, 1934 - June 24, 2014

Ruth LaVerne Day Compton Adams went home to enjoy her eternal rest on Tuesday, June 24, 2014. She was 79.

Born September 28, 1934, in Dillon, Mo., she lived a life of love. From the farm to the city, or on the road as an LPN drawing blood for the American Red Cross, she was the beloved grandmother and matriarch of our family who always sought to spread joy and light in her own special ways.

She was preceded in death by her two beloved husbands, Raymond Irwin Compton and Luther Lloyd Adams, and her parents, Frank and Lorina Day.

She was loved by her dogs, Buddy and Lil Bit and all the fae folk of the forests. She loved plants, telling stories and crocheting.

Survivors include: Her only child, Shirrill Sue Myers; son-in-law, Dennis Myers; granddaughter, Sherri Marie Bean and husband, Jody Bean; grandson, Nathan Compton Jones and Emily Scott; grandson, Raymond Eugene Jones and Clint Simmons; and granddaughter, Angel Faye Hayes and husband, Jonathan Hayes; great-grandchildren, Dennis Nelson Bean and Kathryn Susanna Bean; and her sole surviving sibling, Karen Plunk, who resides in Pacific, Mo., with her husband, Bill Plunk, and many adoring nieces and nephews.

Funeral services: Saturday, June 28, and Sunday, June 29, in the evening at the family home during a private time of remembrance for the dividing of ashes.

Arrangements: W. L. Wilson and Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe.
