“ Our beautiful Aunt Ruth. The true Matriarch of the family. I could say so much about my childhood memories where you were like a mother goose, swooping in and caring for us like we were your little geese. Always patient and loving, never a raised voice or harsh word - and we probably deserved it a couple times. And that oatmeal with raisins - I could've eaten it 3 times a day, lol. I remember as a teenager going to the church on the Mountain when we moved down South and all of your friends kept saying they couldn't believe how much I looked like you. I couldn't believe my ears! I thought it sounded crazy! I had spent my childhood looking up to you, thinking how graceful, how beautiful you were, how effortless it seemed for you to be flawlessly classy...and to me, you always smelled like flowers - your car, your house, your whole being was just delicate and flowery. Yet inside - you were a beacon of strength. Your home has been like a lighthouse for your wayward kin, always there to offer comfort through the storms. And I know there were many. But you still never stopped shining your light on others. No matter if I actually look like you or not on the outside, what I would really like to do is emulate your heart, your strength, your faith in my own life. If there was ever an amazing example for a wife, a mother, a woman of God - it was you. Thank you for all you did and for being an example for all of us. I know ultimately the Master has made His caterpillar a butterfly but your absence leaves a darkness in our family where such a bright light once shone. You will be missed.

“ Ruth was such a kind and wonderful spirit and the few times we spoke on the phone at work she was always so helpful and could see a smile thru the phone. She will be missed by her Yves Delorme family. Sending our deepest condolences to her husband and family. She was a blessing indeed!

“ I was fortunate to have a dear and true friendship with Ruth. We worked together for many years, and I saw her strength and her compassion and her wonderful sense of humor. She was beautiful, inside and out. My favorite memory of Ruth is when the president of our company came to visit our store. We all went to dinner, and afterwards he pulled me aside and said, in his very French way, "This Ruth, she is elegante, non?". That really made her giggle, but it was SO true. She was elegant. She was not afraid of anything. She was skilled in so many things and happily shared her gifts. I learned a lot from her and I will miss her every day for the rest of my earthly life.
