“ I remember laughing with you and I wish I could see you again so we could laugh some more with each other. You were a kind soul and I recognized this immediately about you. Rest in Peace.

“ I remember Samantha coming into the church office one day. She stopped by often back then. But this one day I remember and think of it often because it was so like her. She said it wouldn't bother her if she were to die before the Lord came back because the Bible says the dead in Christ shall rise first and she wanted to be among the first to see Jesus. My prayers are with her family and friends.

“ Samantha had the sweetest soul ever. She never judge anyone no matter what. She was the best aunt a little girl could ask for. I will never forget when me Samantha and holly rode the banana boat in Florida. Samantha was making me laugh so hard. And I will never forget how much fun we had searching for shells. Me and holly were so jealous because you always found the best shells. And she caught not one, but TWO crabs. I will never forget all the fun times we've had Sammie! Love u forever!!!! LLS!
