“ We have many fond memories of both Sandra and Vaughn. I (Steve) spent many nights at the Wilson home and can remember well the massive dinner spreads that Sandra would prepare. The weekends brought a breakfast buffet like you might find at the Golden Corral. Anyone and everyone was always welcomed at their home at meal time. Just bring an appetite and Sandra would take care of the rest. With the passing of both Sandra and Vaughn, Chickamauga has lost two good people and we will miss them.
