“ My earliest memory includes you. We were in the front yard of my grandparents house in Rossville on Raydine Lane. There were big adirondack chairs in the yard and we were playing on them. I was probably 3. You were 5. Even then, I thought you were the prettiest girl I had ever seen. Thank you for loving and encouraging me to be me. I will miss you.

“ Sharon was a beautiful, intelligent, caring person. Sharon loved all her family and was so proud of Tim and Travis. She has left me with too many memories to even begin to share all of them, however one that I will never forget is when we skipped class to go to McDonald's in 11th grade. Of course we got pulled over by Ga. State police, but what made it so bad is they pulled us over in the school parking lot, blue lights, siren and all! We were mortified! Her beauty will brighten heaven. I love you and wil miss you!
