“ This beautiful soul was put in my life a couple years ago. She was one of kindest, funniest and most inspirational women I have ever met. She made me want to be a better person. I had never met someone that did not let this world keep her from smiling and loving others in a way that made you feel like you were one of her family members. She loved collecting baby dolls and the happiness and excitement she got from finding a special baby doll would bring her and everyone around her a special joy that I have never felt. I am so blessed to even get to know her. God often sends you reminders of what his love should look like and to me this was exactly what I imagine it looks like, I love you Miss Sharon I know you are walking on streets of gold and have no more worries or pain. Until we meet again.. You will be missed and never forgotten.

“ Sharon was a sister to me because my dear sister-in-law is my sister. I love all the family as if they were mine. Sharon was a Saint. She was kind, loving, selfless, giving, and loved the Lord. It was obvious when you met her. A meek. soul with a heart of gold. I know Heaven rejoiced when she met them. She may be gone in body but wow how she impacted so many without even knowing it. Love to all of her family and friends. Janett Sanders
