“ Hello. My name is Staci Brewster. I met Milo about a year ago for the first time. We had a cookout at Chuck's and Terrie's. Milo was such a wonderful person. My husband and Chuck are very good friends. I have only been married to my husband since this past January. It is such a small world. Chuck and I went to school together at Lookout Valley High School. My husband met Chuck many years ago and he is his best friend. My husband, Tim Brewster said that Chuck's parents were both wonderful, wonderful, people. Tim didn't get to see Milo before he passed and he regrets that very much. Tim has told me stories about going over to help Cheryl and Milo with work around their house. He told me that they were good, honest, wonderful people. They treated him like family. He loved both of them dearly. We hate it that he is gone, but praise God he's in no more pain. We would like to take this time and praise Milo, and thank him for serving our country. Milo, Rest in Peace. Thank you sir, for serving our country! May you rest in God's peaceful arms now. Fly with the Angels! You are in a better place now! :) You will be missed!

“ May our gracious Lord and Savior provide comfort to his loving family members. Sherman was the uncle of my first husband, Kenneth Walker, and we spent Thanksgiving dinner once with Cheryl and Milo and also ate dinner with them on many occasions. They were wonderful people, very loving and kind. Sherman will be missed and was loved very much. I always appreciated their kindnesses to us.
