“ Mrs. Peters was always an example of a really devout christian woman. She was always there in her place as an example to those young women who were to come after her. She always had a sweet smile on her face even when she did not feel well. As evidence of her strong faith, you can look at her daughter and granddaughters lives and how they keep the faith. I haven't seen her in a while but hope to again. She will surely be missed. Much love Arnella
