“Dad, what words can I say? Another emptiness that can't be filled. So many memories that i will always hang onto. Your laughter and jokes that were hard to understand at times will be missed. You have always been supportive, understanding and generous. You have left a great legacy that will live on in all the people that have known you over the years. As a daughter i am so proud and grateful to have had such a wonderful father. Now you are with mom and Joe and all your other loved ones standing in the presence of our saviour happy and content.
Love and miss you dad, Linda
