“ When life throws you one of those curve balls that feels like a punch in the gut...the only thing to do is pray! Pray for peace, pray for understanding, pray for the ones who you KNOW are hurting so much worse than the pain and hurt that you feel. I learned early this morning that one of the sweetest people I've ever known has gone to be with Jesus waaay too soon. Stacy McAlister was one of the most upbeat and happy people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing and working with. She was a breath of fresh air and a beautiful and constant ray of sunshine! Anyone who has ever worked in the restaurant business knows that it can be hectic and stressful at times but if she was ever stressed, she certainly never showed it. It's like the busy times just sparked a fire in her that was contagious and that energy spread to every employee around her...kinda sounds like I'm describing Jimmy Taylor too, no wonder he loved having Stacy on his team! 😊 I can still hear her shouting her little trade mark yell "yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah" followed by her infectious laugh! Our loss is certainly Heaven's gain but goodness gracious my heart hurts, I loved and adored that girl! Harold McAlister my friend, I can't imagine the pain you and your girls are feeling, I'm just sooo very sorry! We love you and your precious family and we are lifting you up in prayer! ❤️
