“ My prayers go out to Glenda and the family. I worked with Stan for 12 years and considered him a close friend. I always enjoyed playing golf with Stan after work, and some weekends. We always had a great time. I know Stan will be missed by family, friends and co-workers. I know Stan's faith place him with our Lord and Savior. I regret being out of town and not able to pay my respects to all. I will miss my friend-Stan "The Man" as I always called him. Gods Blessings and comfort.
