“ Words can't express how deeply saddened I am for this family. Starla was a beautiful young woman who filled the room with her soft smile and positive look at everything. Her life was her family-- she cherished them and they did her. I can't imagine the pain but I know the love you all shared will help carry you on these hard times ahead. Your entire family is very special. Be well Starla! You will be forever missed but you added much to your short time here. Thank you for letting me be a part! Praying for you all!

“ I was different from the other kids at Gordon Lee, no one liked me, at least openly, they didn't, but Starla never treated me like a leper. She was one of my only real friends. Life took us in different directions, but Starla made such an impression on me. Her kindness, sharp wit, and laughter will stay with me always. I wish we had never lost touch.

“ Sheena, I'm so sorry for your loss, I didn't know Starla very well but I remember her working at the Signal Mountain Country Club. She was a real sweet young lady and I know a great mother. She's with her Lord in heaven and I know he will take care of her, and you will be with her again in his kingdom. May God bless you and your family during this time and you and your family are in my prayers.

“ I was 11 years old when Starla was born-just a little girl myself. Having no brothers or sisters, Stephanie, Starla and Sheena became like little sisters to me. They loved coming to our house and putting on my jewelry, playing in my drawer that had all my fingernail polish and wearing my high heel shoes. We always had so much fun together, playing music and dancing in my room and doing what typical little girls do. The one thing I remember most is that they loved sitting in my bean bag chair in my lap and always wanted me to tickle their faces..so one at a time, I held them each in my lap, tickled their faces and sang different songs to them. The funny thing is that their favorite song seemed to be Frosty The Snowman-no matter what time of year!! LOL I have to Thank God for the time that I had with Starla and for the wonderful memories that she gave me. She will be missed terribly and I will forever have her in my heart! I will see you soon my sweet precious cousin! I Love You Starla!
