“ We were so shocked to learn of Steve's accident and most untimely, way too early passing. I so wish we could be at the service on the 24th but I have a pretty full day already preaching at my own church in VA that morning. Barbara, please know that you have been and will continue to always be in our prayers.

“ Barbara, Cyndie and children i am shocked and saddened at the information of Steve;s passing. He was always so kind to the Nelms and Pope family. I loved him as a Nephew and always will. I will never forget the smiles and hugs he would give to me when we would see one anothr. My prayer is for peace, comfort and lots of love to get all of you through thst go throughe next year of first we must go through. Chldren to you I say, You had a wonderful dad and he loved you very /much. He was so proud of his children. Cyndie, you were the love of his life, giving him a family and holding the family together, He loved you. Barbara, his mother. Thank you for bringing this child into the world, raising him to the man he became and sharing him with all of us, God bless asll of you. Frankie
