“ Oh my beautiful friend I miss you so much ... you were such a good person to be around and always made me smile and laugh ... my heart is so broken to know that you are gone and I will never hear your voice again, never see you smile, and never romp the roads with you again but I am happy to know that finally you are pain free and the suffering is over I love you ... to the moon and back, you fly high my beautiful friend, save me a spot right next to you until we meet again ...

“ I wasn't blessed to have known you but I wished I could have thanked you for blessing me and my family with son, who we love so very much . I know you loved him and was so proud of him as much as he loved and was blessed to have called you mother . Steve is a reflection of what you instilled in him that has made him a godly loving husband and father and grandfather. I know that God has given you wings and that you have a new body with no more suffering and pain. You and your precious family have filled my prays for a long time and that want change . May God wrap his arms around your loving family and give them peace in their hearts. Love ,Cathy Hayden
