She loved you and jasmine so much. On her tablet are pictures of you and jasmine. She was excited about the baby coming too. I have a special gift she had me put up for you til I come to see you. You were special to her and made her feel special too. She loved that you made time for her and visited so much.

“Your life has touched so many and I am so honored to call you my sister. You were the perfect example of what a Christian should be and shared your testimony to all around you and even lead many to the cross. We spent our life time holding each other's hand and heart. Yesterday the memories flooded my mind as I held you close and released you back to God. When you took your last breath a part of me went with you but I know you are walking with the Lord today and rejoicing with our parents, My sisters, my Charles and all our loved ones welcomed you with open arms. I miss you my sweet precious Susie and I will honor your memory for eternity. I will see you again one day. I will and forever will be "Your Janice" and I loved you yesterday, today and always my sissy!
