“ Tammy, I can't believe you're gone. I remember when you lived with me and all the struggles you were having trying to talk to your kids. And your son came back into your life and the light in your eyes, they just sparkled. I wish I got to talk to you before all this happened. You will always be in my heart and in my soul I love you girl!!! I am heartbroken knowing that you're gone. Till we meet again, I know that you'll be free just like a bird....💔😭

“ Tammy i really hate to hear this! You was such a nice person! I have so many memories at your house with chance. The time you took us to see the blue angels, Came to all of our football games, went to the blue hole every other weekend and so much more your house was so fun as a kid. I know you will be looking down over all of us just waiting to welcome us when we come. I wish i could be there for Chance i know you have always been his bestfriend as much as his mom.
