“ I am heartbroken by the loss of Taylor! I have had the pleasure of seeing Taylor grow from a fun-loving little boy to a handsome high school baseball star to a warm and loving husband and father. I am especially glad that he came to the McCoy Christmas party so I could see him and his precious little girls - it was wonderful seeing what a great father he was! My love and prayers go out to Lorrie, Ross, Jennifer, Travis, Meagan, Reagan, and Kennedy as we all mourn the loss of a special young man.

“ Taylor was my son's Nathan first real best friend when they were in elementary school in Lilburn, Georgia. Even when Taylor first moved from Lilburn, the boys kept in touch when we would come to see my father in Chattanooga. Though they went their separate ways, we still have photos and memories of those good times-like the time we went to watch the Lookouts on the 4th of July.. Ross, Lorrie, Jennifer and Travis, please know our hearts go out to you. You and Taylor's family will be held up in prayer and love in Lilburn.
Much love and deepest sympathies, Ann, Charlie, and Nathan Post

“ So very sorry for the loss of this young man. Although I did not personally know Taylor, I heard many good things about him. I can see how special he was to Megan and the sweet little girls in the photos I see. Those smiles and the sparkle in their eyes are genuine happiness!
I pray you all find peace to light your way!

Sincere condolences!
