“ Of all the people I’ve ever known, Teena was the most pure of heart. She only saw the good in the world. The most simple things brought her genuine joy and appreciation. She loved our mother above all and was so excited about seeing her again. She did not leave with any hesitation. There was no doubt she’d be walking with Jesus. Her only concern was in leaving her precious family behind. I know now she’s dancing and laughing and enjoying her newfound freedom from pain. She truly loved with all her heart and was well loved in return.

“ I remember being younger and getting to go home with granny after church on sundays and teena would ride with her. She always used to tell me Zach you’re gonna make it far playing that guitar. I’ll always hold on to that.
