“ Tena was a one of a kind person..she was a great influence in my life. I still make my biscuits and other recipies the way she taught me when only a girl..I am 60 now and really do understand how she did rescued me and my family during a very hard time in my life..I thank God for her and Frank her dear husband!!! Since her passing and through other post I have learned I was not the only one she helped! Truly heaven has gained another angel...I love you sweet Tina and if I do make it to heaven it will be because of your love for me.....
