“ Great memories sharing with her, my sister Adrienne and Clint! Like the time they came to see me in Cats and when we went to Hollywood studios together! She will be missed.

“ Words can not even describe the heartache of such a wonderful and amazing aunt that was taken way to soon. I have the blessing of my aunt Terri naming be at birth and always being told I looked just like you. As i sit here remembering my childhood at your house and me being in the little red rocking chair rocking back and fourth singing as you played your music and even in my teenage years staying the night with you and Ada on the weekends and us having to have our manderian orange cake that was a must. Hearing you say “Hoo Hoo bid” all the time is something me and my sister were giggling about the other day. I remember the countless times you always wanted to look through the obituaries to make sure noone passed away that may have been a close friend or co-worker or old school friend so me reading your obituary as I leave you this message still has me in complete shock. I will always carry our memories watch over us all and Clint.and most of all my daddy. We love you. This is not goodbye, this is I’ll see you again my angel ❤️
