“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Deepest sympathies. Also sending apologies. and condolences from Dennis Christian, a neighbor and a longtime friend of Terry's & the Smiths'. Dennis isn't feeling well today himself and won't be able to make Terry's service to pay his respects today as he very much wanted to. Prayers sent for God's Peace, Comfort, and Strength to blanket you all in your grief today and in the difficult times to come.

“ My prayers and thoughts are with all the family.....Terry has been a lifetime friend and will be missed by many....
He and I lived & grew up on Hurt Rd. in Chickamauga, and he worked at my dad's station thru school and until my dad passed in 91....Terry was always an easy going, laid back person...Always smiling, pulling pranks and there if you ever needed him....All the years I've known Terry, I never once seen him get angry at anyone.....But there was this one time he could have possibly gotten angry, (At me) lol... We were 6yrs old And our parents always told this story, Of when I gave Terry his ,1st black eye....He & I never remembered this, but we were fighting over his mailbox which extended out in the back enough that we would pretend it was our horse....lol....But story was he pulled me off my box horse and hopped up on my horse, So I, pulled him back off, blacked his eye and ran home.....Bob, (his dad):came to my house & told my dad what I did, And they have laughed about it all our lives.....Terry & I just let our dads have their story time if fun....LMBO...He will be missed...Charles, Alisha & Corey I'll keep you all close in prayers well as Ida May, Bobby&Glen.....I love you all...God Bless you all.
