“ My PawPaw was a man who loved his God, his Margie, family, friends, country, and church. He didn't just love them from a distance...he expressed his love openly. I always felt unconditional love from PawPaw. He felt things big and expressed his emotions openly. He was strong and stuck by his convictions. His desire was that his family love and know Jesus Christ. Jesus changed his life, and he longs for us and others to follow the Lord. He brought laughter and joy to our lives. I will miss PawPaw until we meet again.

“ I cannot express my feelings and love any better than the words of my twin. I so adored my Uncle Peck. He reminded me in so many ways of his big brother I so regret that I cannot be with my family to celebrate his life but take comfort in the many we enjoyed here and the eternal rejoicing that will be ours one day! I love you so much Margie and all you cousins. Know I am with you in spirit , prayer, praise and gratitude for the blessing that was Tom Dockery.

“ He was my beloved Uncle Peck and was my Dad Jim’s younger brother. They were very close and loved and respected each other very much. As long as I can remember when they were together, there was always laughter and jokes! I have so many fond memories of sweet times with him and his beautiful family. He and Marjorie were so faithful in visiting with my Dad and Mom whenever they had health issues. As a child and as an adult, I will always remember cutting up with him and enjoying his infectious humor and joyful personality!

He was a faithful servant God, and wonderful role model as husband, father, grandad and great grandad, brother and uncle. He will be greatly missed, but we take such great comfort in knowing he is with his parents, several sisters and many more family members, including my precious Mom and Dad, all praising and rejoicing together around the throne of our Lord and Savior.
